

Welcome charter

We are delighted to welcome you to our accommodation.

In order to ensure the greatest possible safety, we have taken great care to respect the health instructions relating to the COVID-19.

The cleaning of this accommodation was carried out on the morning of your arrival.
The house has been extensively ventilated.

Be aware that in order to avoid contamination :

- All the contacts we have together will strictly respect the rules of physical distance.
- Soap and disinfectant are available in the accommodation.

We cleaned the accommodation with a mask and according to a precise cleaning process.
and deep disinfection according to the current information

- The linen has been washed at the highest temperature by a professional company.
- Cleaning and disinfection of the different areas

We wish you a pleasant stay

